

High-Level Product Backlog

EPIC	User Stories
1. upload material and process	1.1 Users can upload lecture materials (text / PDF) 1.2 System extracts and processes content for further use
2. generate flashcard	2.1 System generates flashcards (question-answer pairs) from materials 2.2 Users can review generated flashcards later
3. manage flashcard	3.1 Users can create and manage decks 3.2 Flashcards are organized within decks 3.3 Users can browse and access their flashcards
4. study session	4.1 Users can start study sessions 4.2 System presents flashcards using active recall 4.3 Users can rate difficulty to track learning progress
5. spaced repetition	5.1 Users receive scheduled flashcards for future review 5.2 System retrieves due flashcards for study sessions 5.3 Learning progress is tracked over time
6. ai explanation	6.1 Users can request explanations for flashcards 6.2 System provides AI-generated explanations
7. infrastructure	7.1 System is containerized using Docker 7.2 Services can be run locally via Docker Compose 7.3 CI/CD pipeline for build and testing 7.4 Database schema is version-controlled (e.g., Flyway)
8. client application	8.1 Provide a basic web interface 8.2 Support uploading materials and studying flashcards